GOVERNMENT

Lakewood, CO on Open.Media

Lakewood was founded in 1889 and incorporated almost a century later in 1969. It was first named Jefferson City but an election was held soon after incorporation and to change the name to Lakewood.

The city now has a population of 155,984 and is revitalizing it's downtown with the Belmar development.

DENVER OPEN MEDIA RADIO

WIN TICKETS!!

We're excited to partner with Sofar Sounds to give away a handful of tickets to their shows! Sofar Sounds creates secret, intimate concerts featuring the world's emerging artists in over 400 cities across the world - including Denver! Sofar Denver highlights local artists and provides a space to share their art with the local community.
How it works - concert goers can browse shows in their area by time and neighborhood. Location specifics and artists are kept top secret until 24 hours before the show to make for an exciting surprise!

Tune in to Denver Media Radio daily 5pm-10pm for chances to WIN tickets!!!
