INTERESTED IN USING MEDIA AND TECHNOLOGY TO CHANGE THE WORLD?

The Open Media Foundation is hiring three new full-time positions, including an Office Manager, Video Production Specialist, and an Account Executive, as well as two full-time Americorps VISTA positions.

The three staff positions range in Salary from $30,000 to $50,000 per year, and include benefits such as an employer-sponsored Health Savings Account, paid vacation, and a 4 to 6 week paid sabbatical every third year.

Here's your opportunity to join an innovative, mission-driven organization, committed to shifting the way media and technology are used to accelerate social change. If you are interested in a fast-paced, professional environment, working with skilled creatives and technical experts committed to a future where nonprofit organizations and underserved communities have a powerful voice in steering public awareness and public policy, OMF might be the place for you. At the Open Media Foundation, we believe communication drives social values and we want everyone to have a voice in creating a new media conversation.

Like a PR firm or Ad Agency, the Open Media Foundation offers top notch video production, web development and branding services, exclusively for nonprofits and governments, often with a matching grant to reduce costs. For people who want to do it themselves, we teach classes and provide tools, like high-end video equipment, facilities, and web and tv distribution so everyone has an opportunity to shift the awareness of their community through the most effective tools available.

Embracing diversity is a core value of the Open Media Foundation. We encourage individuals with diverse backgrounds, age, economic circumstance, ethnicity, gender expression, marital status, national origin, religion, and sexual orientation to apply.

About the Open Media Foundation:

The Open Media Foundation (OMF) works to put the power of media technologies in the hands of civic-minded individuals and groups. OMF produces high-end media content for nonprofits and public sector organizations. It also provides access to affordable media education and technical resources to anyone interested in expressing their own voice. In addition, OMF operates Denver Open Media, Denver's public access TV station.
