DOM Equipment News

The Revo Dual Grip Shoulder Support stabilizes your DSLR camera, prevents rotation, and reduces fatigue so you can keep your camera steady while shooting video, eliminating distracting camera movement for smoother, more professional looking videos!

Heavy-duty aluminum construction, padded dual grips, an adjustable camera mounting plate, and a padded shoulder support combine to make the SR-1500 a comfortable rig, which results in better images. The universal 15mm rail system is compatible with a wide variety of accessories such as a follow-focus, monitor, lights, etc. The SR-1500 can support up to 30 pounds of gear, including your camera and accessories. It's lightweight, portable, easy to use, and easy to assemble.

Reserve the Shoulder Rig today! Free for DOM members!

Studio Practice Session

Build up your experience as a studio crew member!

DOM is now offering a monthly opportunity to practice the skills you learned in the Intro to Studio Production class in a no-pressure situation. There are also some things that non-studio certified members can do. So if you're interested or just curious, stop on by.

Wednesday, August 8, 6 to 8 pm, in Studio A.

Livestream DOM Radio

Listen to all your favorite local bands and podcasts on the livestream of DOM Radio 104.7 LPFM on Radio Rethink.

Developed for community radio stations, Radio Rethink allows smaller community radio stations to stream online and via apps so we can reach a larger audience.
