ANNOUNCEMENTS

Bill of Rights Day every December 15th

On March 4, 1789, the Constitution of the United States of America was ratified by the former 13 colonies and went into effect. States and individuals were concerned that the Constitution did not properly cover and protect several rights of individuals. The Constitution was signed by the original 13 states with the requirement, or understanding, that a Bill of Rights would be created, amending the new U.S. Constitution.

2023 Winter Solstice is on December 21st

The winter solstice marks the shortest day of the year and the first day of winter in the astronomical calendar. At this moment the sun appears to stand still over the Tropic of Capricorn. Due to the astronomical significance, many cultures mark the solstice through festivals and rituals.
