Open Media Career Engine

In partnership with AmeriCorps, Open Media has built the Open Media Career Engine, a project that provides free recruiting, human resources, and hiring services aimed at helping Colorado media and journalism organizations to diversify their staff and better represent the diversity of their audiences.

Led by AmeriCorps VISTAs Ammiee Brown and Erin Close, the Open Media Career Engine has helped seven different media organizations in Colorado hire for 18 different positions, over 55% being female and over 60% being people of color.

Career Engine partners currently hiring include KGNU Community Radio (News Director) and Colorado Public Radio (Managing Editor). Upcoming posts include City Cast and COLab.

Open.Media AgendaQuick Integration

Open Media is working with Destiny to integrate its agenda management software AgendaQuick with Open.Media, our government transparency software as a service for new client Goodyear, Arizona.

The integration will provide streamlined workflows, allowing the ability to import city council meeting agendas directly from AgendaQuick into Open.Media, as well as exporting video cue points back to AgendaQuick.

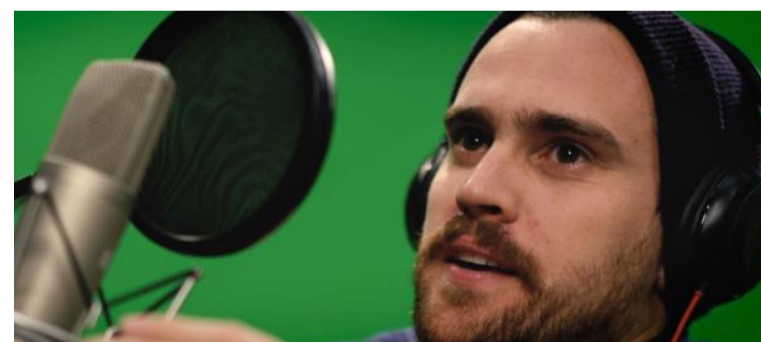

Open.Media already has built-in integration with other agenda management programs, including CivicClerk, PrimeGov and Board Book.
