

Video Production

Open Media live streamed a mayoral runoff forum hosted by the Denver Foundation. We partnered with CBS Colorado and CU Denver School of Public Affairs for the event on Monday, April 24th.

Watch the two candidates explain their positions while fielding questions from newscasters and students.

WIN TICKETS!!

We're excited to partner with Sofar Sounds to give away a handful of tickets to their show! Sofar Sounds creates secret, intimate concerts featuring the world's emerging artists in over 400 cities across the world - including Denver! Sofar Denver highlights local artists and provides a space to share their art with the local community.

How it works - concert goers can browse shows in their area by time and neighborhood. Location specifics and artists are kept top secret until 24 hours before the show to make for an exciting surprise!

Tune in to Denver Media Radio daily 5pm-10pm for chances to WIN tickets!!!

City of Tacoma Park, MD on Open Media

Takoma Park is part of the Washington metropolitan area. It was founded in 1883 and incorporated in 1890. Its population was 17,629 at the 2020 census.

Since 2013, residents of Takoma Park can vote in municipal elections when they turn sixteen. It was the first city in the United States to extend voting rights to 16- and 17-year-olds in city elections.

Creating a DEI Policy as an Organization

Companies are increasingly recognizing the need for diversity, but the path to achieving it is less obvious. Over the last 50 years, trends toward affirmative action have given way to diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) policies. To understand where we are, how we got here, and where we're going, you've got to examine the roots of affirmative action plans, the shift to DEI, and how strong DEI initiatives should be implemented.
